a. Arrangements have been made with Messrs. [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] of the Office of Personnel to have experts cover the subjects of Contract Personnel and Benefits and Services Overseas in the FF&L Course on a continuing basis. The first of these presentations is scheduled for 4 June as part of the final week of FF&L No. 6-71. Heretofore these presentations have been made by the Chief Instructor of the course.

b. A one-day refresher in Class B accounting procedures was given to an employee of the Office of Communications who is scheduled to depart soon for an overseas assignment.

2. Proposed Training Course for Technical Officers (Contract Overrun)

In checking into courses related to contracting offered by other Government agencies, it was found that the Civil Service Commission offers a two-day course entitled "Contract Liaison for the Scientist and Engineer," which was developed and conducted for the CSC by [REDACTED] Institute. The CSC personnel responsible for administering this course

The Office of Training is underwriting the costs of the Seminar and the Management Training Faculty has the responsibility of administering the program.

3. Performance Appraisal Workshop

On 14 April, the Chief, Procurement Division, and representatives from other OL Divisions providing students for the Performance Appraisal Workshop scheduled for 27 and 29 April were briefed on objectives, scheduling, and course design.

4. MEDC

25X1A6a

Mr. Karamessines introduced the CS segment of the MEDC Course at [REDACTED] with a two-hour informal evening session at [REDACTED] on Wednesday, 14 April. He spoke for 35 minutes and devoted the rest of the time to an informal question period which turned out to be very spirited and interesting. In the opinion of the MEDC staff (corroborated by every student we have spoken to) Mr. Karamessines gave a stellar performance. Those present could not remember having heard him do better....ever!
